Do n Pedro.

The dethroned Emperor of Brazil has given to the New York World's correspondent an extended tak. Neither the Emperor nor any of his adherents regard the revolution as final.

"My visit to the United States," said the Emperor, "made a deep impression on my mind. What I saw there convinced me hayoud doubt of the value, the superiority of a free government. Notwithstanding re-cent events in Brazil I still adders strongly to this opinion, but I fear the people of Bra-zil have not yet reached the stage of development which enables nations to derive full and free profit from free institutions. Time alone will tell, but I firmly believe it will prove the correctness of my views.
'I will not venture," he continued, "now to pass judgment on the effects of the revolution. Let the people of Brezil and history judge of it. You know I was never opposed to liberal measures. I always encouraged them; but I was, above all, anxious that my people should progress gradually till they reached the point which would enable them to adopt absolutely free institutions with great advantage to themselves.

"That time has not come yet. Now all is in the hands of God.
"I much fear that there are exaggerated political ambitions dominant in Braz I, which will surely bring misfortune on the country. Both the English and the American people had generations of experience which cannot be improvised among an imperfectly educated nation like Brazil, whose people possess more imagination than common sense in political matters.

"I don't think the Brazilian people have reached anything like the stage of civiliza-tion required to fit them for absolutely free government. It is absurd to draw any analogy between them and the United States. "The present Provisional Government is at best an experiment, which will probably result in disappointment.

"Do you propose to issue a manifesto," inquired the World's representative. "I have neen strongly urged to do so," was Dom Pedro's reply, "but what for? Manifestoes are only words which have practically no utility in our time." "Do you mean to go back to Brazil ?"

"Yee, if the Brazilian people call me I will go back. Why not? I never authorized anybody to say I would not go back." This is the sole political pronouncement made by Dom Pedro.

CAPTAIN GARDEN'S RARE BOOKS -Tre Southern Society of New York will soon be erly of Warrenton, Va, is at work on the idea of a collection of 5 000 of such volumes, which he will present to the society. has about 1,500 already secured, and has prepared a list of all the books that a long study of the subject has made known to him as a printer in the South before the war, and a number of agents in the several States are hunting them up for him. In the po Jefferson Davis and many others of the noted men of the war period. The religious history of the States will be very volumin-ous and will be entirely covered. The his tory of the war will make up a large section. A special valuable feature will be as complete as possible a collection of those rare and extensive volumes printed before the war on political, religious and literary subjects for private circulation, and which were never sold. The library, out of respect to its founder, will be called the Garden Library, and at the last meeting of the Southern Society, its gift was accepted and the donor suitably thanked by a unanimous vote of the MEDICINAL.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose

of Simmons' Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had headache, could eat nothing was constipated, had headache, could est hothing with satisfaction or appetite; had the blues and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to blue mass, calomel, quinine and all remedies suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. R. did me more good than the $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Respectfully, T. C. MARKLEY.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, preduced by torpid liver, and I have been entirely cured by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its section as not to interfere, in the least, with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons' Liver Regulator.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

We have been receiving during the past two weeks our line of Goods for the holidays. We have relected the entire stock with great care and have seen to it that we bought as low as the goods could be sold; consequently, we feel assured in saying that we can offer to our patrons-fine goods at as low prices as they can be purchised for in Washington or elsewhere. We have not space to name the various lines we carry constantly, but wish to call special attention to some few. First. Five cratts of English Porcelain, including 117 pieces of Printed Dinner Sets at $18; 125 pieces Decorated do. at $22.50; 125 pieces Decorated do. at $22.50 these goods are fer superior in waring qualities to the domestic manufacture, and the decorations are very pretty. We have the same styles in Tea and Toilet Sets at correspondingly low figures. We have sold more Tea and Toilet Sets during the past year than for a number of years, and we feel that it is due not only to the splendid assortment, but to the very low prices we ask. In Cabinet Pieces, Ross Jars, Japanese Ware, Haveland China, Cut Glass, Carved Wooden Ware, Umbrells and Piano Lamps, Banquet, Reading and Library Lamps, Royal Worcester, Doulton, Carlsbad, Faunce, Eudolstad and many other of the fancy wares. You can find anything you want. Also some very handsome Bone Plates, Oyater Plates, Pudding Sets, After-Dinner Coffees, fine Cup and Sancers, Wedgwood C cam Pots, Fancy Flower Pots, etc. We cordially invite you to look through our stock, examine the styl-s and prices and compare them with any other house yon visit. We will do all we can to please you, and you will not hesistate to visit our store because you do not want to bny anythi g. It will be our pleasure to show you the novelties Very respectfully,
